Meet & greet with Stream Events Asia staff at public arrival hall.

13:30 Visit to Soi Romanee, one of the first small streets boasting so much revitalization of Phuket Town. Architecturally interesting, but the lane's history is that if the "Red Light" district from the turn of 20th Century Phuket unique architecture, Sino -Portuguese Style or Colonial Style is combination between Chinese and Portuguese Architecture. These kinds of House were constructed in western style but the decoration inside the house was Chinese. Originally, the Sino Portuguese house owners were Chinese that emigrated from Penang. At the time, building such a house was expensive and sometimes materials had to be ordered from the other countries, such as England and Italy so most of the houses were occupied by the traders on Naked Mountain in Phuket. The Mingmongkol Buddha image is 45metershigh made of reinforced concrete which will be covered with white marble. The Statue is 25.45 meters wide across the base which features enormous lotus leaves motifs.

17:00 Visit Patong Walking Street where you can shop for the local goods & souvenirs. There are also lots of bars & restaurants in this area, you may choose to go back to hotel or choose to have the drink or dinner at the Patong Walking Street (drinks & dinner on your own expense).
